

Hatch, Jeremiah

Note

Mormon Pioneer of 1850.

(son of Hezekiah Hatch and Aldurah Summers of Atchinson county, Vermont). Born July 7, 1823, Vermont. Came to Utah 1850, Lorenzo Snow company.

Married: Louisa Pool Alexander at Nauvoo, Illinois. (daughter of Alvah Alexander and Phoebe Houston of Vermont, pioneers 1860, Lorenzo Snow company), who was born 1826, died April, 1869.

Their children:

1. Hezekiah, died;
2. Phoebe, married Samuel Cozzens;
3. Aldura, died;
4. Alvah Alexander, married Mary Elizabeth Nelson;
5. Jeremiah, married Elizabeth Winn;
6. Lorenzo, married Adaline Winn;
7. Abraham, married Emaline Miles;
8. Louisa, married Timothy Malin;
9. Aisabell, married David P. Woodrull;
10. Theodosia, married John Clark;
11. Josephus, married Luella Thomas.

High priest. Settled at Salt Lake City, moved to Lehi, to Cedar Fort, to Salt Creek and to Manti, where he served as Indian agent under Brigham Young for five years; from there went to Moroni, and in 1862 to Cache Valley, to Heber, and in 1878 to Ashley Fork, where he spent the remainder of his life. Bishop. Farmer and blacksmith. Died May 1903, Vernal.